White Plains Outdoor Arts Festival
ARTIST APPLICATION

Thank You for Applying!

Carefully read the application requirements:

Quality: WPOAF seeks artists who create and sell high-quality, originally-crafted work. The work presented for sale must be the artist's own work. Wearable Art and Crafts must be the artist's original design and individually made. NO RESALE OR BUY-SELL ITEMS ARE PERMITTED. The committee reserves the right to exclude from future shows any exhibitors whose work was not as represented in the images submitted.

Application: Complete the application in its entirety and submit with three (3) images of work and one (1) of booth displaying a full range of artist's current artwork. Images must be of recent work to be exhibited and sold, and can be mailed or emailed. Payment in full must be received at time of application and may be mailed or submitted via PayPal. A $25 cancellation fee will be applied should the artist withdraw from the festival after April 30.

Booth Space: Each artist will be assigned a booth space that is on grass and 10' x 10' with a minimum of 1' on each side and at the back. Every effort will be made to assign the same space to returning artists unless a change is requested. The WPOAF committee will assign all spaces according to category, layout, and traffic flow.

Booth Requirements: Artwork displayed at the show, must be representative of the work submitted with the application. Artists are responsible for his/her own tent, including set up, display, weights for safety, and break down of their display. Be prepared for all types of weather conditions: hot or cold, wind, rain or shine. Dismantling of displays may only begin at 5:30 p.m. unless weather is deemed unsafe by the WPOAF Committee.

Application Deadlines:
